Miss CURTISS. | Miss LESTER.

As men who love the stars, and stripes
Wich float over the noble, brave, and true,
Appreciated for what she stands,
We volunteered, for Her to die or do.

No band to cheer us on our way,
No banquet feasts for us were laid,
A Mother's kiss, " Good-bye, my son ",
Our Patriotism could not be stayed.

That love which burns, and thrills, and yeorns,
To hold that gained by men who died,
That America might be supremely free,

THAT'S WE
